

POLICY AND PROCEDURES MANUAL
NIAGARA FREEWHEELERS BICYCLE TOURING CLUB INC.

Revised January 2018

INTRODUCTION

This Policy and Procedures Manual is a companion document to the Constitution and By-Laws of the Niagara Freewheelers Bicycle Touring Club Inc. Its purpose is to provide detailed backup on how to apply the clauses of the Constitution.

The Policy and Procedures Manual is the responsibility of the Secretary of the Niagara Freewheelers Bicycle Touring Club Inc. or any other member of the Executive designated by the President. The function is to maintain, modify and update the manual when changes are made to the policies and procedures of the Corporation.

Changes to the Policy and Procedures Manual can be made only by resolution passed by the Board at one of its regular meetings.

A policy is defined in terms of “what is to be done”. A procedure is defined in terms of “how something is to be done.”

OBJECTIVES

To promote and encourage recreational and utilitarian bicycling primarily in and around the Niagara Region:

To educate our members directly, and the public indirectly, on legal, safety and technical matters pertaining to bicycling:

To assist in the establishment and protection of the rights of cyclists:

Section One: INTERPRETATION

1.01 Terms

In this handbook of the Niagara Freewheelers Bicycle Touring Club Inc., unless the context otherwise specifies or requires:

- a. “Tour” means a recreational excursion of varying duration, distance and pace.
- b. “Ride” means tour.
- c. “Event” is an exclusive occurrence that invites participation of both members and non-members. That could be a ride, or a social.

d. "Director" means an elected or appointed member of the Board.

Section Two: HEAD OFFICE

2.01 Post Office

The Corporation shall have a post office box to offer continuity in address from one Board term to the next.

Section Three: MEMBERSHIP

3.01 Admittance to Membership

Each member shall be provided with a membership card.

3.02 Classes of membership

There shall be two classes of membership in the Corporation.

a. The Family Members shall be any related group living under one roof. The relationship may be marriage or common-law arrangement and shall include children and parents. They shall be entitled to participate equally with the ordinary members in accordance with the by-laws; and they shall pay annual membership dues in accordance with the provisions of the by-laws of the Corporation. The family members shall be entitled to vote at all meetings of members of the Corporation in accordance with the by-laws.

b. The Ordinary Members shall be either a Member or Junior Member as stated in the by-laws and shall be entitled to participate in the Corporation in accordance with the by-laws.

3.03 Conditions of Membership

Members residing outside of the regional Municipality of Niagara shall be entitled to participate equally with the ordinary members in accordance with the by-laws. An additional administration fee may be charged, as determined by the Board of Directors, to cover additional costs of postage, telephone and so forth. Any person may participate in a maximum of three rides as a guest, under the conditions and terms of the Corporation, after such time, in any given fiscal year; they are requested to become members. A Junior Member must be accompanied on all rides and at all events by an individual Member of the Corporation, who has agreed in writing (waiver) to be responsible for the Junior Member.

3.04 Transfer of Membership

The interest of a Member of the Corporation shall not be transferrable.

3.05 Fees

There will be regular membership fees set for ordinary members and family members to cover the general administration of the Corporation, including the cost of insurance, as carried out by the Board of Directors. A separate fee will be levied for each tour, event, workshop or program of the Corporation, as deemed appropriate by the Board. All programs of the Corporation will be self-sufficient. The Board of Directors will review the membership fees prior to the Annual General Meeting.

3.06 Volunteers

Members are encouraged to contribute a portion of their time to improve the quality of the club's activities.
